Resume

- Olena Yatsunska is a Ukrainian-American political scientist who lives and works in Florida. She graduated from Kharkiv National University receiving her PhD (eq.) in Political Science in 2001 from Odessa National Law Academy. Olena Yatsunska is the author of more than 75 papers, including 4 books. She was a researcher at the Kennan Institute at the Woodrow Wilson Center of Scholars, Washington DC. In 2004 she was hosted by University of Toronto. In 2005 she received a post-doctoral fellowship at the Kluge Center at the Library of Congress. Her major academic interests are Local Government, Political Advertising and its influence on public conscience using imagery and archetypes.
- She now dedicates her extensive experience producing expressive tools to help professionals communicate with children and adolescents. Her figurines are specifically designed to help children identify and express their deep emotional conditions where their vocabulary and ability to confront their own emotional and psychological state are inadequate.
